BUTTON & POSTER DESIGN Collaboration with CSUMB

FNM engages students in a creative competition to create the annual First Night Monterey button and poster. We work through concept to design with the students for five weeks in class to the final poster design. Bobbi Long, Associate Professor of Communication Design at California State University of Monterey Bay (CSUMB), teaches Publication Design and Service Learning. Her students compete to provide the graphics for the FNM poster design.

Winner of the 2019 Poster Contest: Alex Crapo, Artist, Musician, Traveler, Storyteller. Alex is a CSUMB Design major who works to capture the human experience through her work. At the crossroads of design and art there is a connection that can be made through the conscious communication of ideas, experiences and emotion. She combines an empathy for the consumer experience with her natural talent, creating unique and memorable visuals.

MONTEREY CITY PHOTOGRAPHY EXHIBIT

37 photographers submitted 113 photos to the city’s first online photo contest. Participants joined in celebrating Monterey’s beauty and community. They captured stunning landscapes and seascapes, historical and urban architecture, active people and vibrant community life. The public selected the “People’s Choice” and a panel of three visual arts professionals selected the “Judges’ Choice” – both making up this exhibit.

IN MEMORIAM

First Night Monterey lost two beloved friends and long-term first nighters when Carla Ballastra, teaching artist, and Laura Hubrich, bookkeeper, passed away this year.

Each will be remembered for her incredibly positive attitude, great sense of humor, incandescent smile and extremely generous spirit. We are heartbroken and miss them both so greatly.

Outreach Art Workshops Throughout Monterey County

Our community spirit is exemplified by the First Night ArtWorks! We’ve engaged hundreds of youth and families who participate with professional artists in hands-on creative workshops in the visual, performing and multimedia arts, at community sites all around the county. From South to North County, to Art Camps in Greenfield and Monterey, FNM sponsors art workshops for youth, adults and community organizations. The program culminates with exhibition of their creations on New Year’s Eve. You will find youth artwork in the Monterey Conference Center.

Monterey Art Camp at Archer Park

Each summer FNM offers creative art education for youth for six-weeks, geared for youth grades 3-8. Camp offers early and late supervision and on Friday’s we have an art show! Creative projects include painting, watercolor, sculpture, printmaking and STEAM projects. We love our makers! www.firstnightmonterey.org.

Greenfield Harvest Festival

Since 2010, FNM has produced the GHF on the third Sunday in October with over 5,000 attending this free community family arts festival celebrating the harvest and farming community in South County. The event includes: Community Parade, six bands, seven dance troupes, four art activities, pony rides & petting zoo, face painting, beer & wine garden and lots of fun!
